Our Story

Bhetayo began as a response to a need. Isn't it almost impossible to find professionals who consistently give excellent service on time when you require assistance with minor but important household tasks?

Yes, we were facing similar issues! Every time we had a leaking pipe at home or a laptop that needed immediate fixing, we had to either wait to find someone or run to some shop. And that's when the idea of Bhetayo came into being.

Bhetayo is the quickest and easiest way to hire an expert for at-home services. We wish to assist you in resolving all of your household issues quickly, easily, and, most importantly, with background-verified service providers who are competent and reliable.
